

A Romantic Disney Parks Vacation

Whether your Clients are spending Valentine's Day at a Disney theme park or just looking for a romantic evening anytime, a Disney destination can offer the perfect dreamy getaway. From fine dining to fireworks and more, there's something for everyone to enjoy.

Walt Disney World Resort

If your Clients are looking for a scenic experience, they can travel along the banks of the Sassagoula River in a cozy horse-drawn carriage. They can board their carriage at Port Orleans Resort – Riverside, and then enjoy a 25-minute ride down the charming pathways along the river, all while taking in the rustic beauty of the resort area. Reservations can be made by calling (407) WDW-PLAY.

For foodie couples, California Grill at Disney's Contemporary Resort is a must-do. Your Clients have several options to experience breathtaking views and delicious dishes at this award-winning restaurant. For a leisurely Sunday morning, they can relax at Brunch at the Top. Or they can have a romantic dinner prepared with fresh, seasonal ingredients, and then pose for a photo on the observation deck. For an extra-enchanting evening, they can end the night with a Celebration at the Top – Savor, Sip and Sparkle, enjoying light bites and refreshments along with access to a private observation deck for the Magic Kingdom fireworks spectacular.

Disneyland Resort

With its perpetual twilight ambiance, Blue Bayou is a romantic experience perfect for your Clients looking for a flavorful meal in Disneyland Park. They can enjoy the flavors of the Big Easy surrounded by lanterns and fireflies, while watching Pirates of the Caribbean boats sail by.

Bonus – they can take a ride on the classic attraction after their meal, because nothing says “romance” like a pirate adventure. If your Clients are looking for other adventures, for their taste buds perhaps, they can also set course for other delightful dinner options at Carthay Circle Restaurant, Napa Rose or Steakhouse 55.

When the sun goes down, the lights come on at Pixar Pier at Disney California Adventure Park, illuminating the whimsical boardwalk. Your Clients can try their hand at the Games of Pixar Pier, and if they're lucky, they may even win their sweetheart's heart (and an adorable prize). Or they can square off and battle for the high score in Toy Story Midway Mania!
